

2010 SUMMER OF MUSIC ON THE REDONDO BEACH PIER FREE Sunset Concerts presented by the Redondo Pier Association

The Redondo Pier Association's annual FREE Summer of Music sunset concert series returns on Saturday July 3, 2010 with two hours of great music every Thursday and Saturday from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m., through September 4, 2010, plus a special Independence Day concert added this year. The concerts take place at the west end of the pier overlooking the Pacific and concertgoers are encouraged to bring a beach chair for better enjoyment of the music and sunsets. This year, the pier will feature a diverse line-up of music with many new bands performing Blues, Country, Flamenco, Jazz, Reggae, Rock, Salsa and Soul. The Redondo Pier Association welcomes back local favorites, the Couchois Brothers, opening the series on July 3rd followed by Mehana featuring music from the islands of Hawaii with a hula dance performance, on the 4th of July. Sweet Talk Radio will perform music that has been featured on the hit TV show "Army Wives" and Local South Bay sensation Jeremy Buck & the Bang will be performing music from their latest album on August 7th, Steely Jam, a Steely Dan tribute band will be performing on August 5th and Sour Grass, a popular funk and blues band from Santa Cruz featuring South Bay natives will be closing out the Summer of Music festival over Labor Day weekend on September 4th. Other bands returning this year include, Danny Hamilton & the Mudslingers, a finalist in CMT's Music City Madness on July 10th, the all-dentist rock band, Open Wide on July 24th and the Caribbean Island music of Panjive on September 2nd.
